

PEER RECOVERY COACH TRAINING AND CERTIFICATION

PROVIDED BY

IN PARTNERSHIP WITH

ABOUT US

The Peers Advancing Total Community Health (PATCH) program seeks to expand the public health workforce in Indiana by training new, and existing, peer recovery coaches with specialized training. The program's goal is to provide training so that participants become newly credentialed Certified Addiction Peer Recovery Coaches (CAPRC) through ICAADA.

Learn More

SCAN ME

*Financial stipends will be provided to all scholarship recipients

*Scholarship recipients who complete the required courses will be eligible to obtain the CAPRC credential free of charge and apply for a Dept of Labor approved paid apprenticeship

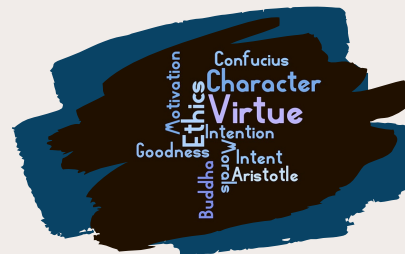

COURSES PROVIDED

FREE

Recovery Support Course

5-day recovery support core competency course to educate on the role of recovery support

FREE

Peer Recovery Ethics Course

2-day course to educate on the specific ethical responsibilities of a recovery support role

FREE

HIV Education Course

1-day course to educate on HIV risk reduction and other communicable diseases such as hepatitis

FREE

Cultural Competency

1-day cultural competency course to build skills related to providing empathic, supportive services