

CPRC-A and CPRC Code of Ethics

The ICAADA Certified Peer Recovery Coach (CPRC) Code of Ethics outlines minimum values and principles of peer recovery coach practice. This code of ethics serves for the Certified Peer Recovery Coach-Associate and Certified Peer Recovery Coach credentials. This code of ethics serves as a guide for responsibility and ethical standards for both levels of ICAADA Certified Peer Recovery Coaches. ICAADA expects those currently employed and/or trained as peer recovery coaches with interest, or currently pursuing certification as a Certified Peer Recovery Coach, to adhere to these standards outlined below as if they currently hold either level of the CPRC certification.

Peer Recovery Coaches have a responsibility to support persons seeking/in recovery/wellness achieve their personal recovery/wellness goals by promoting self-determination, personal responsibility, and the empowerment inherent in self-directed recovery/wellness. Peer Recovery Coaches shall maintain high standards of personal conduct and conduct themselves in a manner that supports their own recovery/wellness. Peer Recovery Coaches shall serve as advocates for the people they serve.

Peer Recovery Coaches shall not perform services outside of the boundaries and scope of their expertise, shall be aware of the limits of their training and capabilities, and shall collaborate with other professionals to best meet the needs of the person(s) served. Peer Recovery Coaches shall always preserve an objective and ethical relationship with the person (s) served. This credential does not condone, endorse, suggest, or intend that a Peer Recovery Coach shall serve independently. The Peer Recovery Coach shall only work under appropriate supervision.

A. Supervision

As a Peer Recovery Coach, I will:

1. Agree to maintain a minimum of one supervision session per week (group and/or individual structure) totaling minimum 4 hours of documented supervision per month. I will at no times provide professional recovery support services without direct supervision. Supervision is defined as a person-centered, strength-based approach to supporting the CPRC with identification of professional strengths, areas of improvement, implicit/explicit bias, growth opportunities, cultural responsiveness and/or other items that will support the CPRC providing competent and ethical services.
2. Supervision for a Peer Recovery Coach in a nonclinical setting may be performed by either a person holding a peer supervision credential offered by ICAADA, received recovery support supervision specific training at minimum and working towards obtaining one of the certifications/licenses outlined below, or comparable credential or one of the following licenses or credentials:
 - A. A licensed behavioral health professional currently practicing in the state of Indiana (LAC, LCAC, LBSW, LSW, LCSW, LMHC, LMFT, HSPP, or Psychiatrist)
 - B. CADAC II or higher through ICAADA
 - C. ICADC or ICAADC through IC&RC
 - D. NCAC II or MAC through NAADAC
 - E. CSPR-PR or CSPR-CL through ICAADA
3. Supervision for a Peer Recovery Coach in a clinical setting or service may be performed by one of the following credentials. It is expected that the supervisor receives recovery support supervision specific training:
 - A. A licensed behavioral health professional currently practicing in the state of Indiana (LAC, LCAC, LBSW, LSW, LCSW, LMHC, LMFT, HSPP, or Psychiatrist)
 - B. CADAC II or higher through ICAADA
 - C. ICADC or ICAADC through IC&RC

D. NCAC II or MAC through NAADAC

E. CSPR-CL through ICAADA

Note: A clinical setting or service is defined by Current Procedural Terminology (CPT).

4. Maintain regular supervision, and ongoing personal supports, so I have a person with whom I can address challenging personal/professional issues, behaviors, or conditions that may negatively impact my own recovery and/or my ability to practice within my professional role as a CPRC. I understand that misconduct will result in disciplinary action and may result in the suspension of my certification.
5. Utilize supervision to grow my professional skills set and identify skills/behaviors that require improvement.
6. If supervision required above cannot be retained, I will contact Indiana Association of Peer Recovery Support Services (IAPRSS) to locate an available resource to meet these supervision requirements.

B. Professional Conduct

As a Peer Recovery Coach, I will:

1. Accurately identify my qualifications, expertise, and certifications to all whom I serve and to the public.
2. Conduct myself in accordance with the ICAADA CPRC Code of Ethics.
3. Ensure all services delivered, and professional conduct, is led by SAMHSA' Guiding Principles of Recovery: Hope, Person-Driven, Many Pathways, Holistic, Peer Support, Relational, Culture, Trauma-Informed, Strengths and Responsibilities, and Respect.
4. Make public statements or comments that are true and reflect current and accurate information. Public statements will not cause negative consequences or harm to the community, views on recovery, recovery support profession, person(s) served, and/or organizations.
5. Ensure that substances, mental health situations, and behaviors, do not affect, or limit, my ability to maintain my role as a role model, and mentor, of a healthy recovery lifestyle. If my actions, behaviors, and/or choices do not reflect being a model of healthy recovery, I will notify my supervisor immediately.
6. Recognize personal issues, behaviors, or conditions that may impact my performance as a CPRC and report any unethical behaviors to my supervisor and ICAADA.
7. Respect and acknowledge the professional efforts and contributions of others and do not declare or imply credit as my own. If involved in research, I shall give credit to those who contribute to the research.
8. Maintain required documentation for all client records as required by the agency through which I'm employed or the Federal requirements making certain that records are documented honestly and stored securely. Agency disposal of records policies shall be adhered to.
9. Protect the privacy and confidentiality of persons served in adherence with Federal Confidentiality, HIPAA laws, local jurisdiction and state laws and regulations. This includes electronic privacy standards (social media, texting, telephonic, video conferencing etc.). In instances where confidentiality laws do not apply, I will ensure that the person(s) served is informed when information is shared outside of my organization, confirm what information is acceptable to share, and consent has been provided.

10. Use client contact information in accordance with agency policy and applicable laws.
11. Not create my own private clinical practice.
12. Provide a current copy of the Certified Peer Recovery Coach Code of Ethics to my employer and direct supervisor.
13. Not commit a criminal offense. I understand if I am charged for a criminal offense, the ICAADA Ethics Committee reserves the right, with full ICAADA board approval, to take immediate disciplinary action up to and including suspension of my credential. It is my duty to notify ICAADA immediately if I am charged with a criminal offense.
14. I will disclose directly to ICAADA, per ICAADA ethics reporting guidelines, if a known, or perceived, ethical violation has been committed by myself or person(s) who are currently certified/licensed in Indiana (regardless of certification/license), person(s) acting in a peer recovery coach role, has received training to become a peer recovery coach/recovery coach or are actively pursuing certification as a CPRC/CR

C. Conflict of Interest

As a Peer Recovery Coach, I will:

1. Reveal any perceived conflict of interest immediately to my professional supervisor and remove myself from the peer recovery coach relationship upon recognition of an identified conflict of interest. Conflicts of interests include dual relationships such as providing services to other staff within your organization, personal relationships with the person(s) receiving services etc.)
2. Disclose any existing or pre-existing professional, social, or business relationships with person(s) served. I shall determine, in consultation with my professional supervisor, whether existing or pre-existing relationships interfere with my ability to provide peer support services person(s) served. I will follow the recommendations of my supervisor and continue to remain in consultation as needed to ensure the practice of ethical standards. If I feel that consultation from my supervisor contradicts this code of ethics, I will contact ICAADA and receive direct consultation from them or Indiana Association of Peer Recovery Support Services (IAPRSS).
3. I will defer to the ethical dimensions that guide the Peer Recovery Coach certification (iatrogenic, fiduciary, boundary management and multi-party vulnerability) to guide all professional service/conduct decision making processes.
4. Inform clients of costs of services as established by the agency for which I am employed and not charge person served beyond fees established.
5. I will not sponsor, or provide any recovery pathway specific support to any individuals I have served as a Peer Recovery Coach, either currently or in the past.

D. Coach/Client Relationship

As a Peer Recovery Coach, I will:

1. Clearly explain my role and responsibilities to those I serve.
2. Terminate the relationship with a person(s) served when services appear no longer be of benefit and respect the rights of the person served to terminate services at his/her request.

3. Request a change in my role as a CPRC with a person being served if the person served requests a change.
4. Not engage in sexual activities, romantic relationships, professional and/or personal relationships with persons served in my role as a CPRC, or members of the immediate family (as defined by the person(s) receiving services) of the person(s) served.
5. Set clear, appropriate, and culturally sensitive boundaries with all persons served.
6. Work to identify implicit and explicit biases using supervision, continued education, consultation with other recovery support professionals, and other awareness opportunities to grow in opportunities to overcome potential barriers to person-centered care.
7. Provide culturally responsive services, continue to develop an awareness of cultural humility through supervision and continued education while seeking out diversity enrichment opportunities within my community. I understand it is my responsibility to provide services that practice cultural humility and conduct myself in a manner that preserves the dignity of the culture(s) of the person(s) served and community.

If at any point I recognize/I am unable to meet any of these requirements, I will immediately cease performance as a Peer Recovery Coach and seek professional assistance. This professional assistance includes, but is not limited to, consultation with my supervisor, connection with Indiana Association of Peer Recovery Support Services (IAPRSS) for professional development/consultation and disclosure to ICAADA. I understand it is my responsibility to adhere to this code of ethics and the ethical standards that guide the peer recovery coach role. I will contact ICAADA if my organization, or other programs I work alongside, create/implement policies that force me to work outside of the ethical standards or scope of practice of a peer recovery coach.

I hereby attest that I have read, understand, and will adhere to the ICAADA CPRC Code of Ethics, as described above; and including, a subsequent change to the code of ethics that is duly approved by the ICAADA Board of Directors at a regularly scheduled Board Meeting. It is my responsibility to remain current and comply with the code of ethics for this and other credentials awarded by ICAADA throughout the life of the credential.
